

Lake Michigan Seascape by Rudolph Ingerle

Courtesy of the Highland Park Public Library

East on Central, The Highland Park Historical Society and
The Highland Park Public Library present

A Town of Talent: A History of Writers and Artists in Highland Park

Wednesday, October 27, 2010
Highland Park Public Library
494 Laurel Ave
7:00 PM

Elliott Miller, president of the Highland Park Historical Society, will speak about the famous authors and artists who have lived and worked in Highland Park over the last 140 years. Our town has a long history as a home for creativity, as East on Central continues to prove. Mr. Miller, who has done extensive research on the subject, will demonstrate the depth of that history.

For more information call East on Central at 847-757-1184 or email us at eastoncentral@comcast.net. Visit our website www.eastoncentral.org.

East on Central programming is sponsored by grants from the Highland Park Cultural Arts Commission, The Park District of Highland Park, The Highland Park Community Foundation and the Illinois Arts Council, a State Agency.